

1. The United Kingdom is an island nation in the northwest of Europe, consisting of England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland. It is a diverse country with many different cultures from all over the world, wonderful nature and interesting history.
2. Stonehenge is older than the Pyramids
Stonehenge is one of the world's most famous prehistoric monuments, built as a cemetery in the Bronze Age, but not many people know that this is even older than the pyramids.
3. A Welsh town has the longest name in Europe
Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobwllllantysiliogogoch is the longest town name in Europe and one of the longest town names in the world.
4. Brits drink a lot of tea... about 100 million cups every day!
5. The London Underground (also called the Tube) features 409 escalators. Together, every week, they travel the same distance as the circumference of the globe.

6. England Symbols

National Flower Tudor - rose

National Bird - Robin

National Tree - English Oak

National Song - 'God Save the King'

National Song - 'God Save the King'

7. Football is the most popular sport in England, followed by rugby and cricket. All three of these sports were invented in the United Kingdom!

8. The Channel Tunnel links the south of England with the north of France.

9. England's top dishes include Chicken Tikka, Fish and Chips, Yorkshire pudding and Roast Beef in England.

10. The UK has over 130 universities, including some of the world's top universities, such as Oxford University and the University of Cambridge.

